

Pull flashlight collar out and keep the bright central oval light beam centered on the same point.

Use meter stick to keep flashlight bulb at fixed distance.

Use protractor to measure the angle "above the horizon."